Most etched in my mind
was driving around town
in the dump truck ~
Lesley Werden.

Their Own

On October 16th, the Junior powder puff team entered the parking lot in an army truck and in a large dump truck with the slogan "Dump the Seniors". The Seniors arrived minutes later in their own dump truck.

The Junior's won the coin toss and they choose to have the ball first. They started their drive on the 35 yard line and to everyone's surprise, scored making the score 6-0. The Seniors then held the Juniors on the two point conversion. The Seniors immediately responded scoring two unanswered touchdowns to make the score 6-14. The second half was dominated by the seniors who took the ball immediately and drove 65 yards down the field to make the score Juniors 6, Seniors 22. After the Juniors were stopped on two possessions they finally managed to score, to make the score Juniors 14 Seniors 22. The Seniors ended up winning the game 22-14. A few factors may have contributed to the Seniors victory. Such as the chain gang making the downs for the Seniors only seven yards while stretching the chain out as far as possible for the Juniors. Or maybe it was the questionable calls made by the referees that always seemed to come out in favor of the Seniors. The male cheerleaders who tried to pump the crowd with some rather unusual antics also graced the night. They tried several crowd chants but ended up adapting one of their own unusual chants. The male cheerleaders also put on a half-time show that was in a league of it's own.

After the game ended, the annual bonfire was held in the parking lot. The cheerleaders cheered as the crowd watched. It was the perfect ending to a great evening. Overall the event was a huge success for the Junior class. They raised $1200 to be used for the 2003 prom.

Dominate

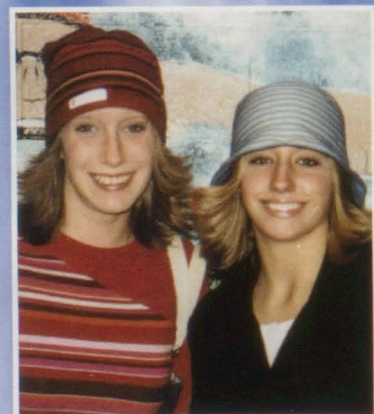

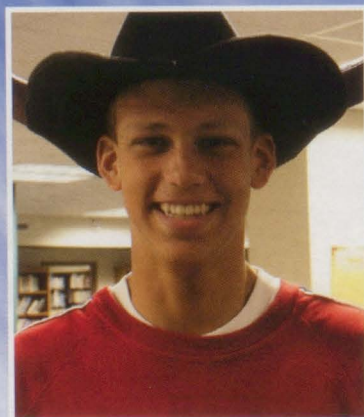

Five days of fun, excitement and competition between the classes ended in an unexpected Sophomore victory! The Sophomore class was triumphant during Spirit Week with an overall participation of 200% out of the possible 500%. Freshmen came out in 2nd place with 179%, and trailing not far behind were the Seniors with 168% of their class being involved throughout the week. Placing fourth were the Juniors with an upsetting 141% participation. However, coming in dead last was the staff, who only showed 137% overall.

The five spirit days ranged from wearing casual everyday clothes to going all out with the most wild and crazy outfits anyone could find. On Monday, students came to school wearing their most stylish hats and sunglasses. Then, on Tuesday, it did not take much effort to come in jeans and a white t-shirt. Wednesday was a day when the students were able to show off their favorite concert apparel. On Thursday, Seniors wrapped themselves in their wackiest sheets for toga day as the underclassmen sported their class colors. Ending the week on Friday, everyone displayed their school spirit by showing off their black and orange attire, while getting pumped for the big football game that night versus Warren Fitzgerald.

Square Pants

Chicken wire, scissors, wire cutters, plastic strips, wood, and staple guns. These are all a few of the supplies needed to build a class float. Every year each class competes to build a float according to the theme of homecoming. Everybody wants theirs to be the best. The Seniors usually win, but it is always fun to try to give them a little competition. The weekend before homecoming everybody meets at a designated house. The Freshmen met at Georgia Dewey's, the Sophomores at Noel Rivard's, the Juniors at Sarah Phelps, and the Seniors at Nicole Lindke's. This year's theme was cartoons. The Seniors, "Coach Bob Square Pants" won the float competition. The float had a huge Coach Bob Square Pants, Glodward (Squidward), and Scar-fish (Patrick). The Seniors did a great job of portraying the cartoon. The biggest surprise of float building was the Freshmen's float. They amazed the whole school with their gigantic version of Captain Hook on a wooden boat, which took 2nd place. Their theme was "Hook the Fitz". The Freshmen were very happy with the outcome. Unfortunately, the Juniors fell behind to 3rd place with their version of a "Buzz Lightyear" float. In last place were the Sophomores with their theme of "Batman". All of the floats were in the parade after school. If that wasn't enough, the floats were all on display at the homecoming football game against Warren Fitzgerald. Everybody did a great job and their hard work showed!

The whole experience of being on homecoming court will be etched in my memory forever. ~Jennelle Achatz

Homecoming is a very exciting time of year for the students at Marine City High School. Being nominated for homecoming court is a very special honor. The nominees were dying to find out who had won. Finally after all the ballots were counted, everyone sat in the gym anxiously awaiting the announcement of this years' 2002 Homecoming Court. The sound of the drum roll rose louder and louder as the announcing began. This years Freshmen representatives were Prince Keith Emery and Princess Kelley Werden. Representing the class of 2005 was Prince Steve Solack and Princess Kelly Rons. The Junior class chose Jeremy Rittenhouse and Larry Cummins as their representatives for Prince along with Julie Warwick and Stacey Stevens as their Princesses. The Seniors chose two sets of representatives for prince and princess also. Recieving Prince honors were Dave Marlatt and Adam Treaster. Princesses were Jenny Lee and Nicole Lindke. Last but not least, our King of the Court was James LaParl with Queen Jennelle Achatz. Further into the homecoming festivities, they all showed off their homecoming attire when the ladies were crowned and the men recieved their sashes at the pep assembly. A few hours later, they all took a seat in assorted convertibles and showed off for the crowd at the parade. If that wasn't enough, they represented their grades once more out on the football field surrounded by the MCHS Marching Band, the Varsity football team, and the cold night air. Less than 24 hours later, the Homecoming dance began, where every one of them danced throughout the night. This year's court was unforgettable. It was an awesome night that will be etched in their memories forever.

Let the Games Begin

Most etched in my mind was the football team yelling "Hey Arnold" as James LaParl walked down the aisle - Adam Treaster

The 2002 homecoming pep assembly was a day to remember, from start to finish. It was a rowdy celebration with the varsity football team participating in all of the cheerleaders' cheers, pumping up themselves and the crowd for the Fitzgerald game that night.

The assembly started off with the cheerleaders pumping up the crowd. After they had finished the color guard's came into the gym to help announce the 2002 court followed by the Varsity Cheer teams performance of their opening number.

Then it was time for the games. The first game was the bubble gum pie contest; there was a piece of bubble gum in the center of a pie filled with whipped cream. The first person to find the bubble gum without using your hands and blow a bubble wins. The senior representative Josh White was the quickest person to find the gum and blow the bubble.

The next game to be played was the football pass. The rules to the game are simple: form a single file line and pass the football to the end of the line and back. By the way, you can't use your hands feet or arms in anyway. The race was close and exciting but in the end it was the Seniors who came out on top. Maybe it was because the Seniors have had four years of practice.

The last game of the assembly was the classic tug-of-war. The first two teams to go were the Freshmen and Sophomores. The freshmen destroyed the Sophomores.

The next match was between the Juniors and the Seniors. To no surprise, the Seniors came out on top. The final showdown was between the two opposites, the Freshmen and the Seniors. The Seniors came out and overwhelmed the Freshmen, leading to a Seniors sweep of the pep assembly. The assembly was topped off by the Varsity football team performing the Zulu then all the students were dismissed ten minutes early from school.

Fever

The long awaited night finally arrived on October 12, 2002. Beautiful fairytales graced the hallway as if they were out of a storybook: glistening stars and caricatures of Prince charming sweeping their ladies off their feet. It was not much different inside of the high school gymnasium, where couples danced the night away on the floor. Glamorous dresses and the guys' striking suits and ties filled the room as the music set the mood for an exciting evening. Homecoming 2002 was an event that will not vanish from the memories of anyone present that night.

After a week of fun festivities and a victory at the homecoming football game the previous night, more and more energized students show up at the extravaganza. Cameras flashed the whole night, as people took pictures of their groups of friends and made memories to take with them forever. The tradition of the Senior circle was carried on to this year where the Seniors acknowledged their final homecoming of their high school career. The sadness was soon turned to happiness and excitement when the music changed its tone in to upbeat songs. Everyone danced their hearts out until the very last song, when they realized how fast the time had flown by. Homecoming 2002 will remain etched in our memories forever.

Prevail

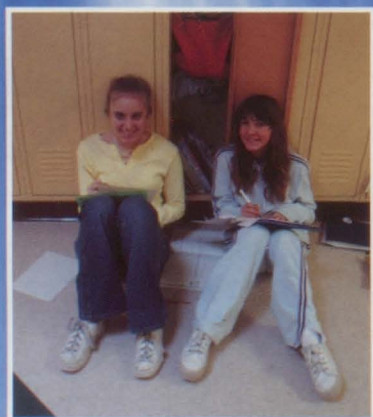

The week before Winterfest is filled with all sorts of activities. Everyone seems a little livelier in the halls than usual. The week began with the favorite, Pajama Day, where students showed off their unique pajama bottoms and mismatched tops. Day two was Hat Day, a tradition of spirit week...the one day of the year that you can't get yelled at to "take your hat off in class." By far the most creative day, Fake an Injury Day, was Wednesday. Students dug out their crutches, ace bandages, and slings and went to class. Of course, in the middle of winter, there has to be a Beach Day. Colorful flowered leis, grass skirts and Hawaiian shirts flooded the halls. Last but not least, Friday was Black and Orange day. Even the teachers showed off their school spirit with Marine City apparel.

Throughout the week, participation is recorded and added together. Out of a possible 500%, the Junior class was victorious and took first place with 113% participation, followed by the Sophomores with a close 107%. Third place went to the Freshmen with 90%. Sadly, the Seniors came into a disappointing last place with only 88% participation. Overall, Winterfest 2003 spirit week was a great success.

To Rumble

Students, teachers, and parents filled the gym on February 7th, anxiously awaiting the events to come at the 2003 Winterfest Pep Assembly. The cheerleaders and the band got the crowd pumped up by performing the school song. Soon after, the court members were lined up and walked down the aisle as the music played. All the members were congratulated by everyone clapping and screaming as they were crowned and sashed on the stage. The court sat on their thrones as they watched their classmates battle it out with the games.

The first game was the Basketball Pass, where each class had to pass a plastic basketball down a line of six people. There was a catch, however. They could not use their hands in any way!

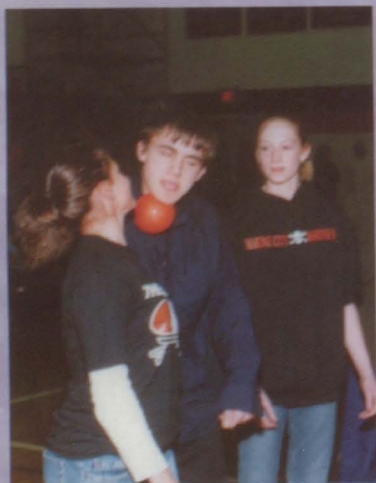

Next came the Cheese Ball Toss. One person had to toss cheese balls onto the other person's face, which was covered in whipped cream. The class with the most cheese balls stuck on their face in the end was the winner.

The following game required some flexibility of the players. The students had to get in a line of ten people and hold hands with the people next to them. The object was to pass a hula hoop from one end to the other without letting go of each others' hands.

The traditional game of Tug-O-War between classes came next. The competition was great, and surprisingly, the Freshmen came out victorious! The last game was the Caterpillar. Each grade had eight students who lined up on their hands and knees on the floor, and they designated one student to be the crawler. That person would crawl on top of their backs. The people at the beginning of the line had to move to the end right after the crawler passed over them, so they would form a continuous path for the person to crawl on. The object was to be the first class to reach the line.

After the games were completed, students went home and got ready for the big basketball game later that night!

Shining in Spotlight

"Winterfest was a big highlight of my Senior year and I will always remember it."

~ Lesley Werden

It is a great privilege to be chosen by your class to represent them on the Winterfest Court. This year's representatives discovered this quickly, after the nomination process when they were surprised at an assembly that they were chosen to be the princes and princesses of the dance for 2003. The Freshmen chose Aaron Herman and Kayla Knowlton as their representatives for their first year. Prince Kyle Dawe and Princess Christiana Schmitz represented their Sophomore class. The Junior class had two princesses: Lisa Martin and Natasha Faucher, along with their two princes: Eric Moody and Don Dewey. For their final year, the Seniors chose Kristina Holtshouser and Phil Mansell as one set of representatives, along with Christina Carmanoff and Steve Beauvais as their other set. Last but not least, the entire student body voted Josh Priebe as Winterfest King and Lesley Werden as the Queen. Following the Winterfest spirit week, there was a pep assembly on the Friday before the dance. At the assembly, the court dressed in semi-formal attire to be crowned as the princes and princesses of their class. The crowd cheered as their class representatives walked toward the stage, and proud parents snapped photos of their children. Then, the following night at the dance, the court danced while they gathered all of the memories that they could from the evening to take with them. This honor and these memories will remain etched in these people's minds forever.

Giddy Up

"Most etched in my mind was the different costumes and my winning the best dressed contest."

~ Ryan O'Hara

Winterfest was held on Saturday February 8th, 2003. The theme for the dance was western. The gym was filled with people wearing cowboy hats, boots, and pigtailes. The hallways were disguised with cacti and tumbleweed, and the activity center was transformed into a western saloon and casino. Everybody showed up in their best western get-ups. There was even a best-dressed competition for the students to participate in. The traditional cowboys and cowgirls showed up along with some indians and runaway bandits. There was even a cow that decided to participate in the festivities. Senior Ryan O'Hara won 1st place in the best-dressed competition with his elaborate cowboy attire.

Everybody looked great!

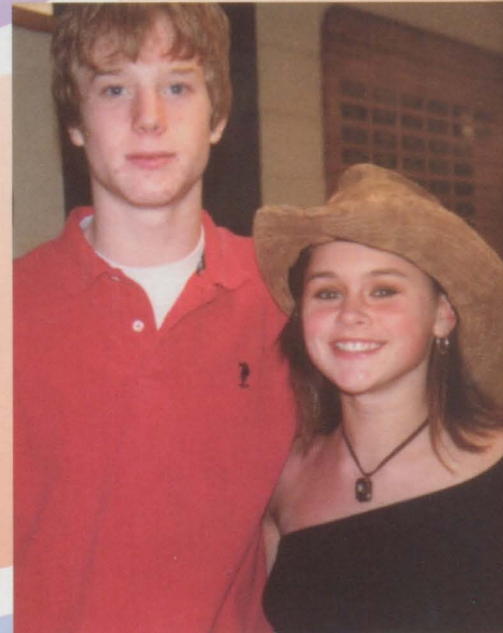

At the dance cameras flashed as people took pictures with their friends and made memories that would last forever. The Seniors enjoyed their last Winterfest and ended it on a good note with the traditional Senior circle. Everyone danced the night away and couldn't believe how fast the time had gone by. All the cowboys, cowgirls, indians, bandits, and a cow, had a great time at the dance and it will be etched in their minds for years to come.

Men In Spandex

"Most etched in my mind was Phil's spandex and the crazy mullet twins."

~ John Reichle

The Senior guys busted out their mad volleyball skills to defeat the Juniors. It all started in the very beginning when the Senior team was introduced with their intimidating nicknames given by Mr. Warkentien. Some of these names were: Phil "Show-Time" Doherty, Steve "Elmer Fudd" Furtah, Ryan "Bicycle" Zohr, Ben "Minute" Rice, Scott "Marshmallow" Uppliger, and many more. Also, Josh White and John Babcock showed their tough side with their stylish mullets.

During the first match, it was impossible to predict the outcome of the game. The Juniors came out pumped and ready to go, stunning the seniors with their incredible play. The Juniors were victorious for the first match, however, that did not last long. The Seniors jumped and spiked hard for the following three matches making them triumphant over the Juniors. The Seniors remain as the defending champions of Powderpuff Volleyball.

After the final match, Mr. Warkentien announced a Most Valuable player from each team. Cullen Chartier was the Junior MVP, and John Babcock was awarded Most Valuable Player for the Senior team. Great effort goes to both teams for an exciting competition.

Fashion Show

"My most memorable moment was waking up Snow White (Kristin Endres) with my magical kiss."

~ James LaParl

Ahh...the Fashion Show. The time when the Senior guys and girls along with the Varsity Cheerleading team shows Marine City just how vibrant they can look. The theme to this year's fashion show was Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs.

The night started with the emcee, Tom Lewis, casually strolling out onto the runway where he began to read the story of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs to the crowd. Kristin Endres was the role of Snow White and James LaParl was the prince. The role of the wicked witch was played by Jennifer Lee.

Now if you didn't go to the Fashion Show, you missed quite an event. How the fashion show works is the actors would act out bits and pieces of the play. Then the models would walk down the runway and strut their stuff.

The Fashion Show was a large success in raising money for the Varsity Cheerleading team. The night ended with one final walk down the runway and prince charming saving Snow White from the evil witch.

1999-2000

Think back through the years to where it all began; we were afraid to walk through the halls and the Seniors intimidated us. The year started off fresh everyone had a clean record, no tardies, absences and the none of the teachers had reasons to hold grudges against us.

Many of us met new people and got involved in sports or clubs. There was always new things for us to experience. We had our first Homecoming and Winterfest. Some of us woke up early to decorate while others of us just went to the dances and had a great time.

There were three freshmen teams that year. Each of them with a different group of teachers that we saw twice a day, every other day thanks to block scheduling. The teams went on different trips that year. Traveling to Kentucky, Chicago and Toronto. To go on these trips, all of the teams had fundraisers that ranged from selling donuts to selling trees. We closed off that year with team parties. We were no longer the new kids in the school.

2000-2001

Our Freshman summer was over and we entered the new year as Sophomores, but not to the same school we left. Dust from construction and the smell of newly painted walls lingered in the air as we entered our remodeled school. Even though it felt like we were still Freshmen, the excuse "I couldn't open my locker!" didn't work anymore. In the middle of our Sophomore year, many of us were leaving behind our childhood days of riding the bus and were getting our driver's license. This new freedom made us no longer feel like we were underclassmen, but we felt as if we actually fit in.

Those who played sports were now getting recognition because we weren't on the Freshman teams anymore, we were on JV. As the seasons' came to a close, some of us were given the opportunity of moving up to Varsity. Those who weren't involved in sports now had the option to get involved in our high school in a different way. The leadership class was created this year and gave students the opportunity to get involved, work as a team, and make a difference here at Marine City High School.

Reaching the Top

2001-2002

Two years have gone by for us here at Marine City High School. Now we were Juniors, but not quite on top yet, but almost. By then, we knew most of the teachers and unfortunately, most of the teachers knew us. Everything seemed routine, just another dance or another game.

But there were some things that did seem new to us. We finally were able to enjoy open campus for lunch again (after having it taken away from us as freshmen), and we were finally allowed to go to Prom. Also, the girls were allowed to play Powder Puff football.

In the spring there were many tests to be taken. Every Junior had to take the MEAP test. Some of us chose to take our ACT's so that we could prepare for next years reality, life after high school.

June came and it was time to say goodbye to the Senior Class of 2002 that we had grown a bond with over three years. As we watched them walk down the aisleway we realized it was now finally our turn to be Seniors.

Time to start Over

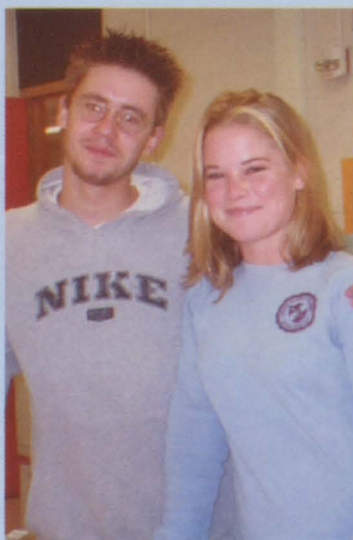

Class Motto: "Dance like nobody's watching, sing like nobody's listening."

2002-2003

Seniors. Who thought that the title would ever apply to us. We were no longer underclassmen. We were on top of the school. Everything seemed to go our way. There was no one to look up to, the underclassmen looked up to us. Bonds were made between friends that we now cherish knowing that it's our last year of high school and we would soon all go our separate ways.

A blur of events flew by in nine months. Some of them were our last while others were our first. Homecoming, prom, Powder Puff, meets, games, competitions and Spring break are now gone. Championship titles were won along with memories that we will never forget and things that we'll never experience again.

ACT scores came in and college applications went out. Eagerly we awaited their fate, knowing they would hold either relief or disappointment. Our year rapidly came to a close. It was now our turn to walk down the gym floor, receive our diploma, and etch a new chapter in our lives.

SENIOR HELPING HANDS

What will you remember the most about being a Teacher's Aide your Senior year?

Jason Barks: "Ripping on Mr. Leaver while he teaches since he has no idea what he is talking about."

Ben Rice: "The sense of responsibility"

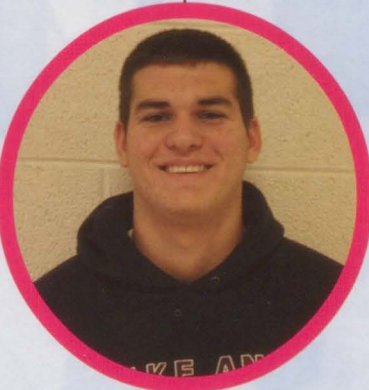

Holly Garvin: "Helping Mrs. Burmann get organized for class."

Laura Lee: "Having the chance to do something other than sitting in a desk."

Randy Pettinger: "Getting out of class and not learning anything for an hour of school."

Ryan Zohr: "Handing out all the detention slips."

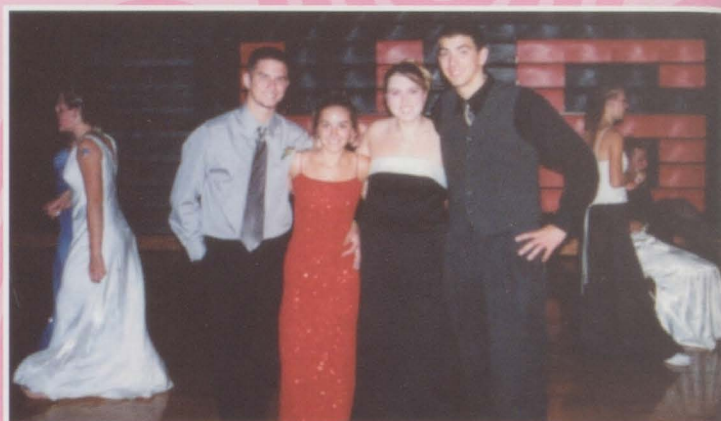

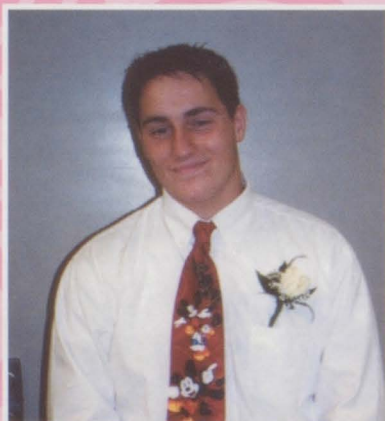

Melanie Smith: "Getting to know what schools like from a teachers point of view."

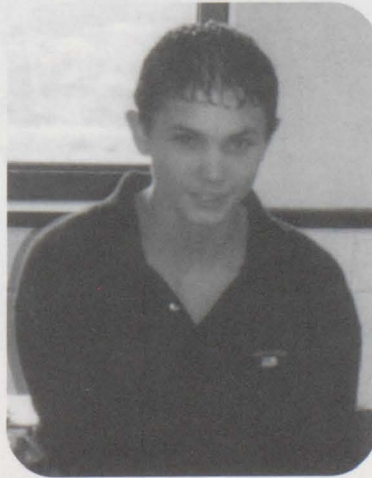

Kelli Mitti: "Having an hour to myself because Mr. Parsons gives me alot of free time."

JUNIORS

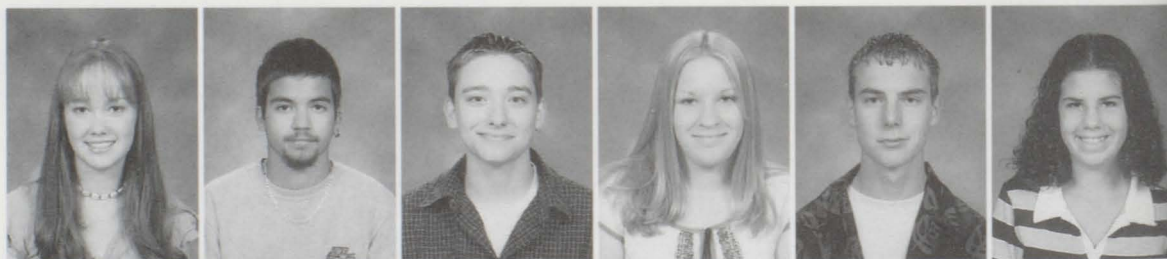

The Junior Class Officers

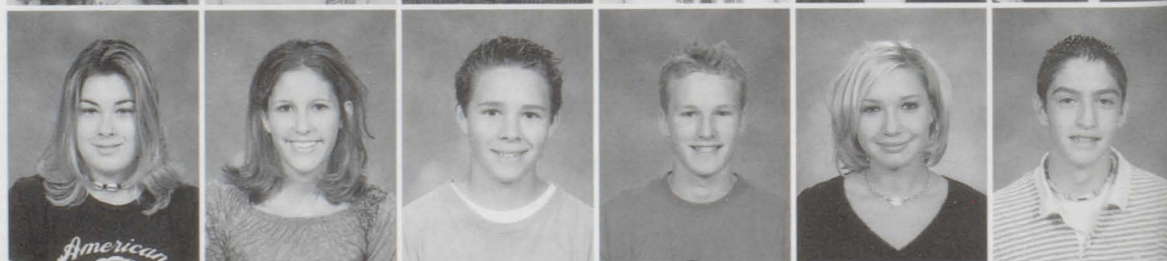

The Junior year is the busiest year. The Junior class officers are in charge of two of the biggest class fundraisers. There is the annual Junior/Senior Powder Puff game, which proved to be a big success despite the very cold weather. Next, the annual rock-a-thon kept many Juniors watching the clock while raising money during an extra day of school. The money raised from both events will be spent on making the Junior/Senior prom a fantastic and memorable night. The Junior officers will also be hands on in helping out with Winterfest festivities. From planting flowers to putting on prom, the Junior class officers stay focused and committed to their leadership duties.

The Sophomore Class Officers

"Our goal is to work together as a group and generate school spirit in the Sophomore class," the Sophomore advisor, Mrs. Webb said. The class of 2005 consists of about 233 students, and leading them are the class officers Noel Rivard (president), Victoria Vintevogel (vice president), Christiana Schmitz (secretary), and Courtney Johnson (treasurer). They have been working hard on the new fundraisers that no one has ever done before. They also do the concession stand at the home basketball games to raise money for their class. Mrs. Webb states, "...they are learning the ins and outs of product sales."

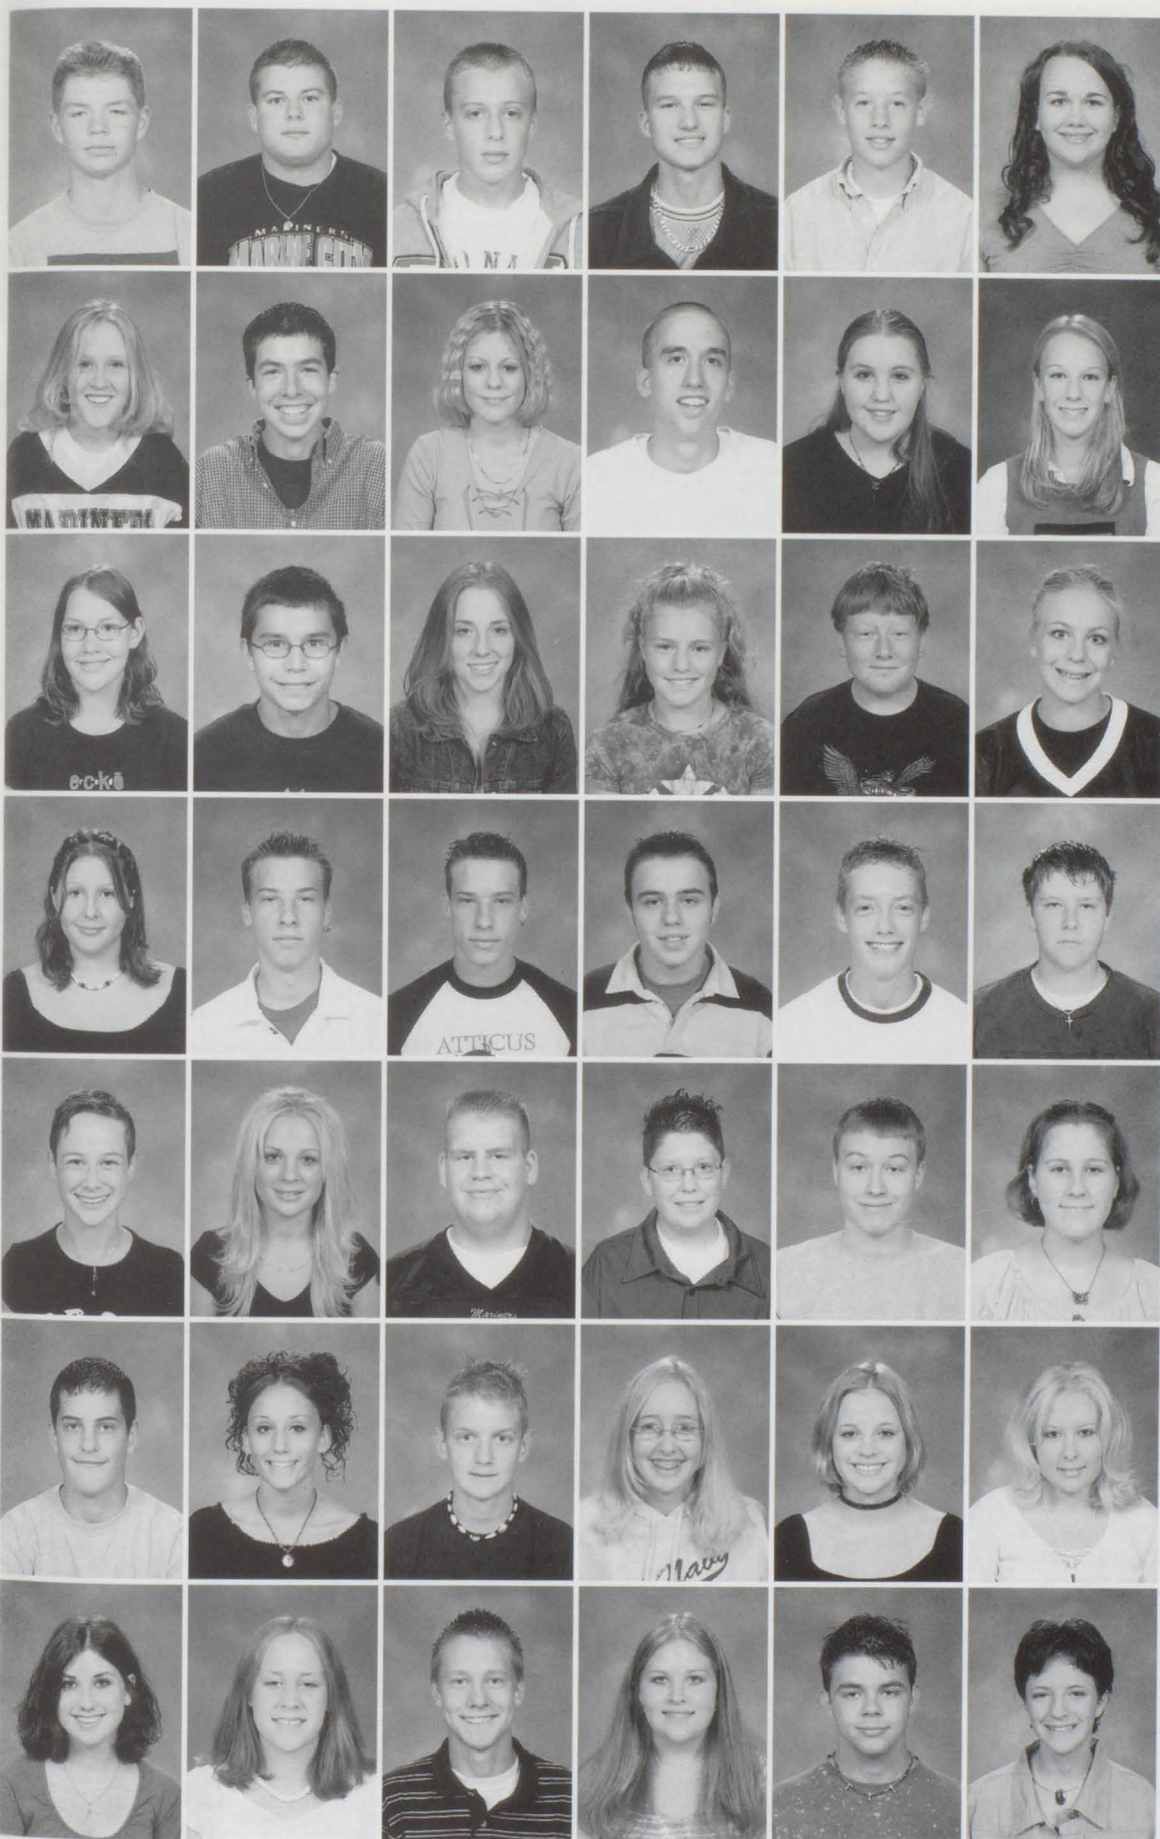

The major event this year for the class officers was homecoming. They came in last place with their float Batman, but had a lot of fun making it. The other big even this year is winterfest and they are grouping up with the Seniors to make the decorations and make the dance a success!

Freshmen

The Freshmen Class Officers

Freshmen Class Officers: Mike Stoltenburg, Mallory Pierson, Georgia Dewey, and Kelly Kucharski

The officers of the class of 2006 have not only provided doughnuts for the student body to purchase every Friday, but they also helped their class to capture second place for their homecoming float! The Freshmen had fun building their first float which was Captain Hook at Georgia Dewey's house.

Aside from float building and doughnut sales, all four class officers have been active in the dances, elections, and assemblies throughout the year. They hope to resume the fundraiser last years' Freshmen officers began, which was to buy American flags for every classroom. Each class officer has been an integral part of the student government and they hope to continued being involved throughout their high school career; making their mark at Marine City High School a long lasting one.

Class of 2006

Foreign Exchange Students

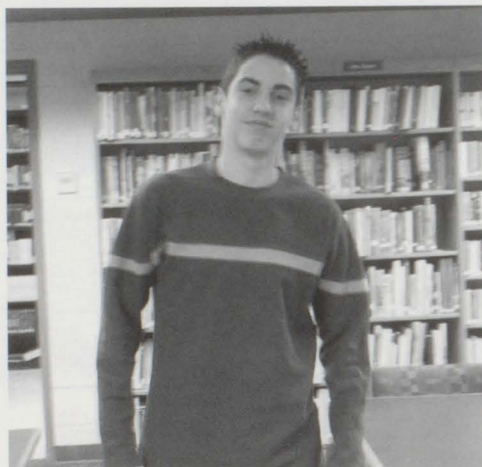

"The best part of Marine City is the school."

~ Renato Sabato

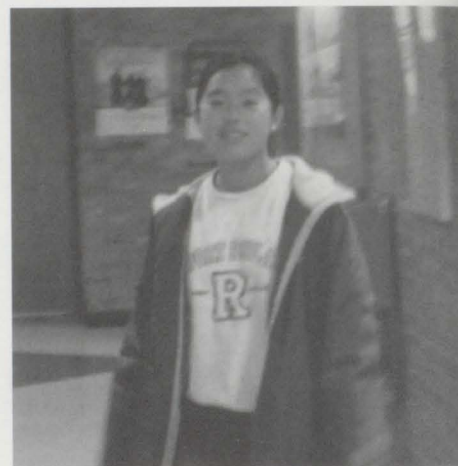

This year Marine City High School welcomed three students from all over the world. Joining us from Brazil was Sophomore Renato Augusto Frey Sabato. Coming here from South Korea was Sophomore Yung Ju Lee, and joining us from Japan was Junior Keiko Kobayashi. Although they were far from home, all of them had a blast here in Marine City. They participated in many extracurricular activities such as basketball, cross country, tennis and track. Thanks to the determination, hard work and dedication put forth by these students and their classmates, they were a positive addition here at Marine City High School.

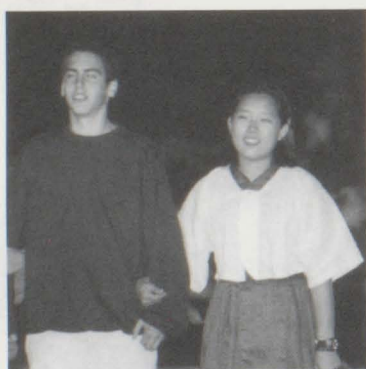

Keiko Kobayashi

Renato Sabato

Yung Ju Lee

What did you like best about Marine City?

"Mariners!" Keiko

"I liked school." Renato

"I liked the teachers, they were considerate of my English." Lee

What did you miss most about your home country?

"I missed my family and my country's food a lot because it tastes better than American food and it is much healthier." Lee

"I missed my friends and my Japanese teacher." Keiko

Staff Stuns Seniors

Who's taller? Mr. Daly or Tina Ratusznik on top of Scott Uppleger's shoulders? Yes, the students needed two people to match Mr. Daly's unusually tall stature for the tip-off at the Staff vs. Students basketball game, which was won by the staff only because of Mr. Daly's height. Before the game could begin, there was a well-deserved technical foul called against the staff, because they had no women players on their team. This foul did not stop the staff from showing the students who is boss in the school.

Many supporters showed up to watch the game put on by the Marine City High School's Student Government as a fundraiser. Both the staff and the Seniors played a great game, all the way until the final seconds, where the staff ended up being victorious by a close score of 63-54. The long-awaited slam dunk from Mr. Daly in the first half of the game was soon after matched by Senior Skyler Verhelle. Being tied was not enough for Mr. Daly, so he showed off his dunking skills once again, proving he was the best. The Seniors, however, did a great job in the game as well. They sunk nearly every three pointer they attempted, and played excellent defense. Their performance was just not enough to come out with a win. The final score proved the Seniors are closing in on a victory of this game in the near future!

BON VOYAGE!!!

On December 6th and 7th 2002, Mariner Drama presented Cole Porter's holiday musical "Anything Goes". The play was set in the 1930's on a cruise ship headed for Europe. Once everyone is aboard, Billy is arranging plans for Reno's stateroom. While on deck, he discovers Hope, who is sailing to Europe to be married. Also sailing is Public Enemy Number Thirteen, Moonface Martin, with his accomplice Bonnie. In the end, Moonface is no longer Public Enemy Number Thirteen, Reno has accepted Sir Evalyn Oakleigh's proposal of marriage and Hope is reunited with Billy. It was the first time Mariner Drama has ever rented costumes and a backdrop from a professional theater company. The end result was amazing. The student actors set a box office record for both nights. Some people came from as far as five hundred miles away to see the production.

Lead roles were played by Becky Peirsel (Reno Sweeney), Steve Tranchemontagne (Billy Crocker), Leah Numbers (Hope Harcourt), Ryan Falcheck (Sir Evalyn Oakleigh), Denver Surgener (Moonface Martin) and Megan Gross (Bonnie). Congratulations to our directors, Mr. McCulloch, Mr. VanDyke, and everyone involved for a great performance.

"The Boys Next Door"

In less than forty days, Marine City Drama put together an awesome performance of "The Boys Next Door." The play focused on the lives, dreams, and experiences of a schizophrenic, two mentally challenged men and a depressive who is described as being without face cards. Junior Brad Maggetti plays Barry, the schizophrenic, brightly. He considers himself a golf pro and gives lessons for a quarter each. Junior Jake Block plays Lucien; he was the least functional of the four and was in love with all the agricultural things, especially bunnies. Norman was a sweet, easily flustered guy, who felt lost without his keys. In three weeks on the job at the doughnut shop, he had gained seventeen pounds. His girlfriend Shelia, played by Justine Beauvais, was always after his keys. Franz Shreiner put on a very riveting performance as the depressive Arnold. He is basically a nervous person. Jack, the social worker assigned to the boys, was a divorced guy, who loves the boys even as they drive him crazy.

One of the most memorable scenes is when Lucien discovers a rat in the apartment. The boys eventually capture the little rat and proceed to flush it down the toilet. The very next day, their next door neighbor, played by Christina Rick, stops over for a quick visit and explains that her son has lost his pet hamster, which matches the description of the "rat" they discovered and disposed of. The apartment complex features weekly dances, which is where Norman and Shelia cement their relationship. Jack eventually leaves the boys, but not before rescuing Arnold from the bus station, where he was waiting for the next ride to Russia.

The play was an amazing success. Congratulations to the cast and crew of "The Boys Next Door". They put on a performance that was second to none.

Leading The Way

"I enjoy working on the bigger projects for the school in Student Government, such as Homecoming or Winterfest."

-Josh Priebe

Below: Kelly Zohr and Taryn Weil get ready for a banquet at the Student Government State Conference in Traverse City.

Student Government went through many changes over the past year. They started out the year in August with Mr. Leaver as their advisor. Then, in December, Mr. Leaver announced that he was taking a new position at Yale High School and could no longer be Student Government's advisor. After his departure, Mrs. Reichle became the new advisor. She had much help adjusting to her new position from the members and officers. Student Government is responsible for many activities that go on in the school throughout the year. Major activities they are involved are the Homecoming and Winterfest dances. They help with decorating for the events, plan the schedule and games for pep assemblies, coronation of the court members and the halftime of the Homecoming football game and Winterfest basketball game. They also do many smaller activities to raise money, and also help charities. In the summer, Student Government helps out at the Freshman Orientation, where the new Freshmen get their schedules, find their classes and get acquainted with the new school. They also head the Staff vs. Student Basketball Game, which is when the school's staff takes on a mixture of the Senior boys' and girls' basketball teams. In October, Student Government helped out the American Red Cross with a successful blood drive and they also collected Quarters for Cancer. Our Student Government deserves much recognition for all of the hard work they do throughout the year!

It was a warm Saturday afternoon, and it was the big game. Marine City vs. St. Clair. Hundreds of fans packed on to the small visitor's bleachers. Everyone was excited. Even the marching band got riled up. They had all of the fans doing the "wave". It was fun! Football games wouldn't be the same without the marching band. Besides just playing at football games, our Marching Band has had other accomplishments.

They took 1st place at the MSBOA festival. They also attended a band camp at Central Michigan University over the summer. The marching band was led by Drum Major Skye Fritz. Brad Maggetti and Tiffany Glasgow were the Junior Field Captains. Along with the band were the colorguards. Colorguard captains were Jenny Lester and Brandi Dueweke. The marching band had a great year!

Be Happy, be part of "My favorite activity was White-Out day because you never know when people are going to die."

~Julie Emerick

SADD

This happy group is composed of students who are truly against drunk driving. They are otherwise known as SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving). They are lead by their co-advisors, Patricia Allagreen and Vanessa Kerr. At the beginning of the year, SADD met to review their goals for the coming year. They came up with two specific goals that they would work to achieve throughout the entire school year. The first goal was to increase awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving. To reach this goal, the students carried-out a numerous amount of activities. SADD put together a White Out Day, which was where each hour the members were "whited out" and could not speak to anyone. The members wore white face paint and clothes to represent all people who were killed by a drunk driver.

SADD also created a display board that stated informative drinking and driving facts to put up at school events so students could view them. Another major activity this year was the Mock Crash. The members of SADD worked with community groups, like the police and EMS, to set up a "crash" caused by a drunk driver. The crash scenario was a high school student going home from prom. The seniors watched as the reenactment occurred, and finally rescue workers freed the injured victims.

The second goal that the members of this club came up with was to provide opportunities for students to participate in community service. They marched in the homecoming and Christmas parades to demonstrate the importance of not drinking and driving. By doing these activities, students who participated in SADD, really reached out to those who were unaware of their organization and what it stood for.

Teens Against Tobacco Use

This year T.A.T.U. is made up of 36 eager and insightful students that are ready and willing to head out to our local schools and prepare the children of our community for the things they will face in their years to come. Teens Against Tobacco Use is a nationally recognized program that encourages teens and people of all ages to not smoke. A selected few of the T.A.T.U. members each year attend training, where they spend the day learning about the hazards and health risks of smoking and second hand smoke as well as how to share what they have learned. This year T.A.T.U. will be going to six elementary schools in the St. Clair County Area including; Belle River, Pine River, Washington, Eddie, Gearing, and Palms. The members have divided themselves into groups and each group will teach what they know to these elementary schools. Using many methods of teaching including hands on, skits, and many other things that will get the kids up and ready to learn.

Leaders

of Tomorrow

The Business Professionals of America were led this year by President, Mike Welser, Vice President, Tina Ratusznik, Secretary, Kournie Zimmerman, Historian, Matt Heuninckx, and Parliamentarians Sarah Phelps and Michelle Biewer. Also along for the ride was Shadow

Historian, Jessica Gadowski. All the members worked hard and had fun doing fundraisers to raise money to go to the state competition. This year, the competition was on March 6th at the Detroit Renaissance Center. BPA also does activities to better our community and help others.

They have done things such as a canned food drive, gift wrapping at Barnes and Noble Bookstore, and grocery shopping for needy families. Overall, this year BPA has been a huge success and lots of fun to participate in.

Helping Hands

"To me, NHS means working your hardest in school so you can help others solve problems."
~Amanda Smith

Helping their community is what these kids do. National Honors Society is a club in which students work hard to better their town and school. It is advised by Ryan Mox, and led by senior officers: Tom Lewis (President), Tina Ratusznik (Vice President), Jennifer Lester (Treasurer), Skye Fritz (Secretary) and Joni Perritt (Historian). This group accomplished a number of activities that continued throughout the year. They did ongoing community tutoring at the Marine City Public Library. They also did teacher and staff birthday recognition all year.

Another ongoing activity that NHS members participated in was birthday cards, gifts, and holiday cookies for the residents of Mallard's Landing retirement home. NHS students also helped build homes for the needy by working with Blue Water Habitat for Humanity for the first time this year. During Parent-Teacher conferences, they held a Turkey Raffle to raise money for NHS. This group also performed many deeds during the Christmas holiday. The members volunteered their time in December at Port Huron Hospital's annual "Festival of Trees" event. NHS also worked with the Old Newsboys Charity organization and had the Christmas Canned Food Drive, collecting over 3,400 canned goods for the needy.

One of the group's major achievements was the peer-mentoring program, headed by Mr. Alley, in which most NHS members are assigned to one or two struggling freshmen mentees, to help them with academics, study skills, decision making, and the transition from middle school to high school. NHS members also helped out at school activities, including basketball concession stands and being theatre ushers for the MCHS drama productions. Although it is hard work to participate in NHS, the students continuously have fun helping others enjoy life also.

Junior Varsity

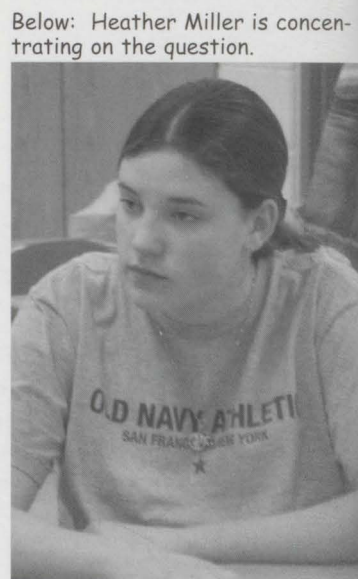

It takes a lot of knowledge to be a part of the Quiz Bowl team. It is a very competitive activity, and it takes a lot of speed and practice. The team practices almost every day at lunch! The questions the team is asked at competitions can vary from all different subject matters. Marine City High School's Quiz Bowl team is one of 11 in the Blue Water League. Also, there is a Varsity and a Junior Varsity team. The Varsity team is coached by Mr. Homberg and the Junior Varsity team is coached by Mr. Depa.

JV members are Milton Lester, Heather Miller, Sara Schultz, Warren Vaughn, Celeste Wegrzyn, John Wescott, John Westerman & Alyssa Yeip.

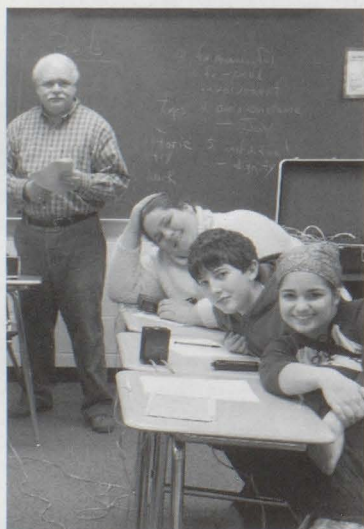

Varsity members are Jesse Fritz, Jordan Yeip, Chris Wenzlick, Jeff Potter, Danielle Keller, Julie Emerick, Troy Maas, Kris Burge & Josh Romas.

ing to the group what is going on today with technology.

The Marine City High School Computer Club usually meets twice per week, once at lunchtime and once after school. This year's main focus is on digital video editing, digital photography, hardware and software installation, fundraising, and gaming.

The students use a digital video camera to record movies then edit these movies using an iMac computer with iMovie2 software. This enables the students to edit their work and incorporate transitions, special effects, and music. Each student is working on their own movie complete with music and special effects. So look for these guys to be the next Steven Spielburgs in the movie industry.

The students are also working on building web pages. In addition to building the Computer Club web site, the students have also created one of their own.

Another project of the Computer Club helping the drama club produce their plays. The Computer Club will be editing in special effects for the drama club.

Of course, where there are computers there are computer games. In their spare time all of the Computer Club members enjoy having a little friendly competition between each other playing over the school's network.

Mrs. Reichle dedicated much of her time to help all of us create, fix, and complete our pages. We had so much fun creating this year's book and we hope that everybody enjoys it.

Saving the Planet

"Most etched in my mind was raising money for the 9/11 Memorial" - Beth Jandron

This year the Ecology Club was sponsored by Mrs. Lindstrom and Mrs. Weins. Their major project was a school wide paper recycling program. They raised money for a paper dumpster to be kept on school grounds so it could be separated from the normal trash and recycled.

The Ecology Club was also involved in the school yard habitat programs which was started from several grants. The Ecology Club planted plants designed to attract birds and create a habitat for them on school grounds.

Mallory O'Brien was the main member behind this project keeping the plants watered during the hot summer months and also weeding the garden.

The Ecology Club sold 50 cent bulbs in memory of all the police officers, firemen, and military personel that died in the September 11th attacks and ended up planting 500 bulbs in the school courtyard.

Over the course of the year the Ecology Club went on several field trips including hikes at Independence

Oaks Country Park, Bald Mountain Recreation Area, and St. John's Marsh. They also are planning a winter snowshoeing trip for February and in the spring they are planning to build several blue-bird houses on school grounds. Don't forget, save a tree, recycle.

Tuff Guys

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Dedication, sweat, and tears are all part of what makes up Varsity Football. The men spent hours in the weight room conditioning before the season even started, and then when the season finally arrived they still continued working even harder.

The Varsity Football team ended their season with a bang. They worked solid all season and did the best they could. Every bit of their hard work paid off, because their final record was eleven wins and one loss. This was the third year in a row that they have won the district title. Also, they have won the Mac Gold four out of the last five years, and this was their sixth consecutive year in the playoffs. Impressively the Mariners have not had a losing season since 1983. Since then, this was their seventh year in the regional playoffs.

In order to be such a great team, there was a lot of teamwork, with the Seniors standing out with their great leadership abilities. Coach Bob said, "the team consisted of undersized guys in all areas, but they played with heart and were unselfish."

The Senior captains were John Warwick, Josh Priebe, Adam Treaster, and Scott Uppleger. Despite the loss of so many talented Seniors from last year's team, many onlookers didn't think they would do very well, but they proved them wrong by a long shot. These players not only achieved good scores, but they also improved mentally and physically. They worked hard for every point they received at their games. Ending the season they had five shutouts, and they were ranked number one in the Blue Water Area for the second year in a row. These guys not only grew individually, but they grew as a team.

Varsity Cheer ranges from having fun cheering at a pep assembly, to cheering out in the freezing, cold rain at a football game, while wearing their ponchos. Where ever and whatever the football players do, the Varsity Cheerleaders are always there to give them full support. On Fridays, when the football players had games, the cheerleaders would pass them out bags of candy with a slip inside that said something like "good luck guys." Then at the pep assemblies the girls would cheer for the football team and wish them good luck. They always got the crowd going, and the guys pumped up for every event. These girls are not recognized enough for all that they do. Every day they practice for long hours working on new cheers, stunts, and gymnastics. Like any other physical sport, they too go home with aching muscles and pains. Yes, cheerleading is a sport. They went to "Beast Camp," which is a very difficult camp. At this camp each girl is pushed to give it all they've got. The other camp they went to was a stunt camp. The cheerleaders also helped out at the powderpuff game, by teaching the guys how to cheer. Whenever there's an event, you can count on the cheerleaders being there.

The warriors stand on the field of battle. They have trained long and hard for this. In their suits of armor they stand ready to fight. They are the JV football team.

The team was coached by Mr. Leaver, Mr. Letson, and Jim Karl. "It was great coaching these kids. They did a great job and worked hard," said Mr. Leaver.

The offense averaged 25 points per game while defense only surrendered 6 points per contest. Andrew Kent was the quarterback while John Stevens, Mike Parslow, and Kevin Cherluck carried the load in the backfield. Ryan Barks, Dan DeGueisippe, and Mike Parslow were the leading recievers. The defense was led by Jon Kuzma, Kevin Cherluck, Jeff McPhee, Shane Markel and Lito Menchaca. The Mariners learned the importance of teamwork, discipline, and self- respect. They had a fun time and played like Mariners.

Hard work and dedication are just a few things the players bring to the game. Everyday they work harder to become the best. With all of the efforts came many rewards. The feeling you get when you win the big game or when you reach your goal are a few things these players work for. This team started out with thirty players and ended their season with only twenty. Even with losing ten of their players they continued to work extra hard. The team ended their season with two wins, five losses and one tie. They won the St. Clair game 19 to 7 which made the players ecstatic. They also came back strong during the Clintondale game when at half-time they were down 6 to 20 and ended the game, tying it up, 20 to 20. "We had a tough schedule this year. It was also a good group. They practiced hard and they always gave it their all when it came time to play," stated Coach Rombach. They had a hard season this year but as D.J. McKeller said, "We played as a team and we had fun."

JV CHEER

JV Cheerleading

If you've got the game, we've got the cheer. The JV cheerleaders were at every game, supporting and motivating the JV football team. They dedicated two hours every day after school to practicing. For each away game, the girls would hand out candy to the football players for good luck. Each girl was also assigned two or three guys for whom they needed to make locker signs for. They also made large signs to put up at games. The JV cheerleaders joined the Freshmen and Varsity cheerleaders at the bonfire following the Powder puff game and also at pep assemblies. Rhonda Steward coached the JV cheerleading team. The fall captains were Cassie Moultrie, Amber Duddy, and Cherise Soulliere.

Pompoms, megaphones, talent, uniforms, smiles, spirit, and coconuts. There are all the things that helped the Freshmen cheerleading team have a successful fall season. Each day after school the girls would practice 2 1/2 hours. The night before a game, the girls would make locker signs, and the whole team would hang them up. Also, for every game they would hand out candy. They also made signs to hang at the stadium for games. The Freshmen cheerleading team also participated in the bonfire after the Powder puff game and at pep assemblies with the JV and Varsity cheerleading teams. The fall captains were Kelley Werden and Jessica Paciorek. They were coached by Kelly Strickbine.

He's running down the field and he kicks the ball. It's good for another goal. The Mariners put another nail into Fitzgerald's coffin. This year's soccer team did an excellent job. They took second place in the MAC Silver division, just one win behind Mt. Clemens. The team set many records for Marine City soccer. They have the most wins in a season, which is two more than the previous record. They also set a record for the most points scored by the team as a whole in a single game. The captians were John Babcock and Ryan Grinell. The two goalies served as captains at times in the season as well. They were Mike Becker and Mark MacGregor.

The team was coached by Mr. Pizzo and Mr. Sobczak was the assistant coach. Mr. Pizzo said, "They're a great group of boys. They were a cohesive group. The best so far." The athletes parents really helped to support the team this year. Mike Becker was injured early in the season when a player from Algonac ran into him. He had broken ribs and a punctured lung. Though he was able to play later in the season. The boys also tied Mt. Clemens one to one, which was the best the've ever done against them. In the last home game of the regular season they beat Fitzgerald eleven to two.

Another first for Mariner soccer this year was securing the Burns trophy. The Burns trophy, which is awarded to either Marine City or St. Clair each year, was given to the Marine City boys this year. Even though game against Saint Clair was tied one one, they were very happy to have secured the trophy. They ended the season with 8 wins, 4 losses, and 6 ties overall. Their league record was, 6 wins, 1 loss, and 2 ties.

soccer soccer

"The Soccer Team worked together very well this year accomplished many of their goals. One was to do better than their previous record, and they came in a strong second place in the MAC! In addition to improving throughout the season they also managed to have a lot of fun." Mr. Pizzo.

SWIM FOR THE WIN

GIRLS' VARSITY SWIM & DIVE

Swimming is 10% chlorine and 90% perspiration. The Girls' Varsity Swim and Dive team discovered this while having a great season. The first meet of the season was their own Marine City Invitational, where they took third place. They continued the season with one to two meets each week. The head coach was Mike Miller; assisted by (diving coach) Chuck Daniel, Janel Miller, and Diana Pondo. The team captains were Brandi Dueweke, Christina Hahn, and Alicia Nierzwick. Each week an honorary captain was chosen from the seniors. Having this honor were Jenny Gross, Katie Gross, Kristina Holtshouser, and Christina Caramanoff.

Among the team victories, there were a few school records broken. Kristina Holtshouser lead the way with 1:00.03 minutes for the 100-yard freestyle record. That same week, the 400-yard freestyle relay team consisting of Brandi Dueweke, Amber Simons, Alicia Nierzwick and Kristina Holtshouser broke the school record, set in 1986, with a time of 4:15.99 minutes. Congratulations to the record breakers and a great season.

He has arrived! Yes, the Golf team had a new coach this year, Mr. Parsons. Mr. Parsons hasn't coached Golf in twenty years, and he is sure glad to be back. He can't express how much he enjoyed coaching this year. The team consisted of many good underclassmen, and Mr. Parsons hopes to see even more improvement next year. Also, the team hopes to make it far enough, so they can compete in the Division Championship next year. The league record was four wins and six losses. Even though they didn't come out on top, they still had steady improvements.

The Golf team practices on Rattle Run Golf course, which is the most challenging course in the area. Unlike a lot of other sports, the golf players have to travel to their practices. The team would usually spend four hours at the Rattle Run Golf course every day right after school.

At the Golf Awards Assembly Scott Firman received two awards, one was the MVP award and the other was for making all league. Jordan Uppleger also won an award for the outstanding job he did as captain. The most improved player of the season was Matt Dietlin. The leading golfers of next year's team is Matt Dietlin, Brent Welser, Alex Bassett, and Justin DeRue.

A Team of Champions

VARSITY BASKETBALL

"No Excuses." that was this year's Varsity Girls' Basketball team motto. At practice and during the games this main quote goes into play. Ashley Emig, one of the seniors on the team this year, was asked the question: "What does the saying of No Excuses mean to you?" She replied: "There's no reason why we shouldn't do something right, and get after it."

On September 26, 2002 the girls had an away game against Marysville, a rival of Marine City. It was not a game taken lightly. That night the team rose up, and defeated the Vikings on their home floor. One of the goals was met that night, with a 44 to 28 victory.

Togetherness, Effort, Attitude, and Maturity are the four main elements to a successful TEAM. The new girls' Varsity basketball coach this year, Mr. Leeman, enforces these four characteristics in everything the girls pursue. Team work is the fuel that produces uncommon results in common people. It is what makes a group of individuals a team. This is exactly what this year's girls' basketball team was. Togetherness, allowed them to accomplish their goals. Effort was put in at every practice. Attitude was turned always to win, and come out on top. Maturity, from every player on the team, prevented any letdowns.

Every player rose up this year, and contributed to the team in her own ways. All these players played for the name on the front of the jersey, and not the one on the back. This year's senior girls' will all be missed. To all those seniors remember, as Mr. Leeman always says, "Be at the right places at the right times, and not at the wrong places at the wrong times."

"I was very happy with the result of the season. The girls gave 100% effort in every practice and every game. The seniors did a great job of leading our team both on and off of the court this year. The younger girls' stepped up to the varsity level and did a great job." - Mr. Leeman

Welcome to JV girls' basketball. A life full of camps, practices, and games. No other sport can match up to the expectations of a game of basketball. This years JV proved that with their hard work and dedication.

The heart of JV basketball was felt throughout the season. Their training at practices paid off when they overpowered their opponents, Marysville and St. Clair. Leading their ability to do so, thanks go to this year's new JV girls' basketball coach, Mr. Daly. He pushed the girls' at each practice, so that they could overcome their opponents not only in the games, but during practice as well.

The season started during the summer where they first ventured off to camp.

Only the players that went could know the thrill of Saginaw Valley Basketball Camp. It's where games are played and memories and friends are made. Sadly one of the players, Megan Mills, who started off the season on JV, was moved up to Varsity during mid season. The girls' all missed Megan, but still pulled through and dedicated their hearts to the game, and the remainder of that season.

The girls' all pulled together this year to become a true team. With some injuries, the team still overcame the distress. Each added their special knack to insure the season, and become closer. The season was a success for each player. Not one head should face down, for the outcome was first-class.

The crowd is hushed. No sound is made, except for the dribbling of a single basketball. Eyes are all focused in one direction. The shot goes up...with a SWOOSH, a point is gained. The pressure each will face sometime during a season.

No person except the player truly knows the pressure, tension, and excitement it takes to win a game. It's the thrill of success that this years Freshmen girls' basketball team was able to taste. Each time a player would step on the court a new kick would evolve.

The season took off with a burst when the Mariners defeated Marysville and St. Clair. Each player took part in the victories; contributing voice and skill to the team. With Mr. D'Hondt as the new Freshmen girls' coach, the team went far as skill is concerned. With the girl's first year in High School they had no letdowns in their performance throughout the season. There were many checks placed by each teams name that they overcame. The practice time in the gym paid off, especially the most regretted Friday practices, where they took part with the Varsity, and defeated the rivals first in training.

Much time was spent during the summer on exerting their techniques. The girls' all became good friends throughout the year, that's why losing one off their players, Deanna Rybarczyk, to the JV this year, half way through the season, must have been hard. The girls' did not lose any of their effort though, and overcame the fact and still played giving forth a hundred percent effort in every game. Each girl on the team should be proud of their season, and winning score they produced.

BOYS' CROSS COUNTRY

BANG! The gun just shot, now there are numerous team members starting their long race. The Boys' Cross Country team had a strong season. They started out by placing 7th at their own invitational. The season continued with a 4-2 overall record. The team attended many relays, doing good at each of them. The team would spend one hour practicing each day, doing 3-4 miles. Frequently you would see them running through town. Ryan O'Hara received first team all-league. He also broke two school records, with a final time of 17:26.00 minutes. This was Mr. Larson's first year coaching, he did an awesome job!

Kick Ace!

Varsity Girls' Tennis

2002 brought in many changes at Marine City High School including new freshmen, new teachers, and a new sports team- Varsity Girls' Tennis. The excitement for the team's debut built up all summer as the anxiously awaited season approached. The girls, mostly new to the game, got off to a rough start. Most of the new Lady Mariners had never played before, and a few of them had minimal experience on the Varsity Boys' Tennis team. Coach Jeremy Manion dedicated himself to helping the girls become tennis superstars. With the help of senior captains, Elizabeth Jandron, Alana Rochon, and Dana Toles, the team quickly started to improve. In support of the new team, a few of the Boys' team players and even Coach Daly, came to a couple home games. They were shocked to see that some of their old teammates could actually play tennis well.

Having mostly seniors on the team, the girls became worried. Would this be the only season of Girls' Tennis? Determined to keep the team alive, the girls quickly recruited a bunch of underclassmen. While most of the senior players appreciated the time they got to spend on the court, they also wished that they could have more time on the team. "For the first time, I wish I wasn't a senior," lamented first doubles player Alicia Russell.

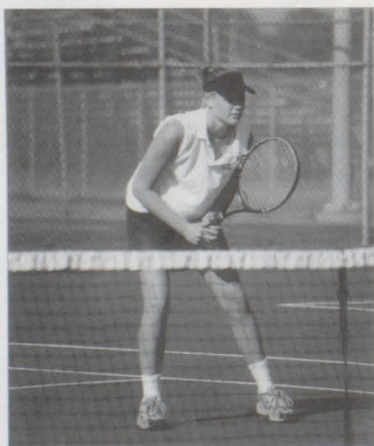

Against all odds, the team went on to compete in nine matches, winning two of them. They also competed in the Mount Clemens Bather Invitational, where they placed third and had ten medal winners. The Lady Mariner team fought a fierce battle on October 12 at divisionals, placing 10th and making it back in time to participate in the Homecoming festivities. After spending the fall together, the girls were upset about the season ending. They were excited though to have proven that girls can kick ace!

District Champs

Boys' Varsity Basketball

MC

The Varsity Basketball team had a great season this year. Not only was the team successful, but each player improved on their individual abilities.

The two captains of this years team were Scott Uppleger and John Warwick. Although Warwick was out for a majority of the season due to knee injury, he worked hard to catch up on the lost time.

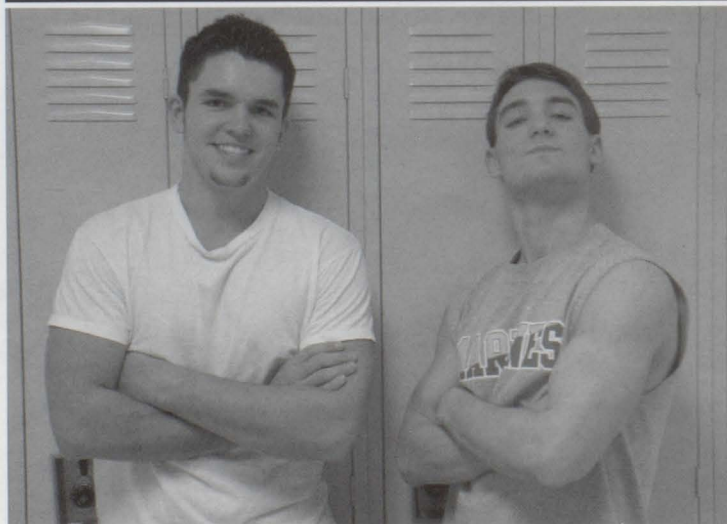

This years team consisted of a lot of outstanding players. The players, along with Coach Glodich spent long hours after school each day practicing their plays and going over drills. During a game the players played their best and they never gave up. Even when the score wasn't in their favor they pushed hard and strived for every point they could get.

The leading scorers and rebounders were Kyle Pelzer and Scott Uppleger. Skyler Verhelle shocked the crowd when he dunked against Lakeview and he also did a great job contributing to the teams effort. Zach Malarney and, Brett VanTiem led in the assists. Scott Uppleger, Zach Malarney and Kyle Pelzer also ended with the most steals. When Mike Welser wasn't out playing on the court, he did a great job staying in the game by rooting on the team alongside coach Glodich. James Karl and Heath Kent were the assistant coaches. This years team won the District Championship. They defeated Marysville and Cros-Lex, but unfortunately they lost a close battle (52-54) to Corunna.

Varsity Cheer team

With camps and football games over for the 2002-2003 season it was time for the Varsity cheer team to start all over again. Tryouts were held, the team was chosen and captains were picked. With the guidance from coach Burmann and assistant coach, Nesbitt, they constructed three new cheers from scratch.

The 02-03 season was very stressful this year. Their practices began in December and continued on to March. During this time they practiced for three hours a day, five days a week. They also attended basketball games and went to Saturday competitions. One of those was the Marine City Invitational which was held for the twelfth consecutive year. This year the varsity team pushed themselves to a new level. All of the teammates walked away with greater personal skills as well as a bond between each other.

The team started off the season with a 38 to 36 win over Marysville. A highlight of their season was when they beat Sterling Heights. They had a lost the two previous games and no one thought that they would win. The team had fun and enjoyed the season. Mr. Leeman had a fun time coaching them and enjoyed the season too.

The Junior Varsity basketball team had a great season this year. They won a majority of their games and played hard in the games that they didn't win.

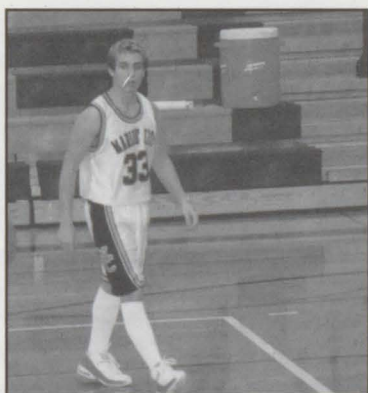

The team started the season off with consecutive wins against long time rivals Marysville and St. Clair. Another high point of the season was when they came back from six points behind, and only a minute to go, against Centerline for the win. "The team worked hard all year. They put the team ahead of individual accomplishments," said coach Mr. Daly. The team had a great deal of talent and a great attitude.

Cheers, chants, jumps and stunts. This is an everyday activity for the JV competitive cheer team. These came into play to determine in what the girls' worked so very hard for each week, their games, and their competitions. They attended practice every day, as well as gymnastics classes for one hour every Wednesday. They improved their skills such as jumps, splits, heel stretches, back walkovers, and many other tumbling techniques.

Competitive cheerleading is a team sport. No one person is more important than the other. It takes everyone; flyers, bases and spots to complete a stunt, and give its full effect. A major factor in cheerleading is "trust." Members of the team must learned to trust their fellow squad members. Another very important factor in cheerleading is presentation. Each girl must carry herself on and off the mat; setting a sort of expectation for the competing teams. Loud voices, constant smiles and great facials are a must. These girls' didn't lack them a bit.

This year the girls' competed in four invitationals. The Lake Orion Invitational, The Marine City Invitational, Mac, and St. Clair Classic Invitational. While they were on the mat each girl gave 110%. This is what led their team to many personal victories.

According to Alicia Lannoo, "The most memorable part of the Freshmen cheerleading season was when we had late practice and made our half time dance!" Fun times, laughs and meeting new friends all drew a part in the exciting and new achievements with a group of old and new friends. "the most memorable part of the season for me, was at the practices where we would make each other laugh so hard, that it hurt." said Jessica Gisting.

Freshmen year is a learning experience. You learn that not one person is more important then the other. In cheerleading you are all equals. Alicia Lannoo said, "We learned a lot this year. Especially when we practiced stunting with the Varsity. They taught us a lot. We also learned when we work as a team we can accomplish anything." To work up to your varsity year it takes a lot of dedication. The Freshmen girls' had exactly that. Dedication and teamwork allowed them to achieve their goals. Cheerleaders always remind us that, if basketball was so spectacular, then why does it take cheerleaders to excite the crowd!?

The Varsity Wrestling Team showed great overall effort this season. Even though they weren't always successful, they still put forth a lot of hardwork and time.

This year Coach Mike Bladow started three Seniors including Josh Priebe, Randy Pettinger, and T.J. Schindler. Underclassmen Paul Gale, only weighing 103 lbs. showed great improvement and hard work during the games and also at practice. This season the team had to void three weights, which was a big disadvantage to Marine City's Team.

The Regional Qualifiers were Josh Priebe and Randy Pettinger. Josh Priebe also won his 100th win this season against Lanse Cruese North, which was a big accomplishment for him.

One outstanding victory for the Mariners was their win against Madison Heights. The final score for that game was 57-18.

Team captains this year were Josh Priebe, Randy Pettinger, and James Gale. Randy Pettinger was also this years League Champ.

The wrestling team received a lot of help from a variety of people including their assistant coach Tim Balcons, Ralph Thibodeau, Paul Kruise, Jimmy Albert, and Russ Pickering. The wrestlers showed great team work, and they really enjoyed the season.

The Mariners serve the ball. The ball is being hit back and forth over the net. This is very intense. The Mariners score a point. The Varsity volleyball team had a fun, tough season. "We have become much closer as the season has progressed," said captain Kournie Zimmerman. They all learned how to work together and have fun. They played hard and, even though they didn't always come out on top, they put forth a great effort and played their best. When things weren't going well they would come together to pick each other up. The competition the team faced this year was intense. The girls commented on it being much more competitive this year than last year.

The high point of their season was when they played L'anse Creuse North for a second time. Even though they didn't win they played their best. They played well at the Armada Tourney and won five matches. They also did well at the St. Clair tourney. When practices and games were tough the team persevered and pushed on.

Everything the team did this year was a total team effort. Everyone worked hard and contributed to the effort. Teammate Pam Griffor said, "The team worked together, helped each other, and made it fun." Whether they were at practice, cheering from the bench, or playing in the game everyone contributed. The whole team really appreciated the support of the fans. The cheering crowds really helped keep the team going. Their coach Mr. Manion was very happy with the improvement he saw over the season. The whole team worked hard and with dedication. Over all the team enjoyed the competition and playing volleyball with their friends. Photos taken by Byron Goggin.

Score 14-13, just one more point and the match has been won. Up goes the volleyball, now there's no turning back. Back and forth it will go, as the intensity rises. Which side will have the regrets? The back row gently bumps the ball to the setter. The setter sets the ball to the front row, as the front row hitter approaches with a "SMACK." cheers are in an uproar as the last point has been scored. The match has been won, all to switch sides and start another.

This years' JV Volleyball girls' didn't need three matches to determine the winner for their games. Pure talent kept them in each match. The season started off with Freshmen, Georgia Dewey and Aubrey Zimmerman, moving up to JV level. With their ability added, and the talent the girls' already possessed, the game of volleyball had the appearance of being easy. On Monday, January 20th, 2003, the St. Clair volleyball game was scheduled to be played. The fierce M.C. girls' walked into their home floor, and again out, with heads high. The score that night was M.C. 2 wins, and St. Clair 0. The girls' never allowed them in the game. This was a team effort, especially at the end. All that was needed was one point to win. Not only was the crowd and the bench into this game, but also the Varsity girls' volleyball team came out (from their pep-talk) to cheer on in the excitement. Needless to say the point was earned.

"The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand."- Vince Lombardi. This years' Freshmen Girls' Volleyball team did just that. With a successful and exciting undefeated season, the girls' triumphed through all of their wins. Pure heart and drive to win led them to their successes.

The most exciting of all their games was the win against Marysville. Through three matches the girls' played their soles, spirits, and hearts out. In the end it came down to who wanted the game more, and it was by no luck that the Freshmen girls' did. The team effort allowed this win. No one girl wasn't involed in the victory. If it was through the effort on the court, or the pure fact of losing their voices from the bench. Each played an important part. through the season the girls' also came a crossed and conquered St. Clair. This game only took two matches to determine the winner. Which was yet again Marine City.

This years' Freshmen volleyball coach was Lisa Pettinger. With a lucky number of thirteen players on the team. The season was beyond winning and victor-ious. the season was more then just winning, it was memorable.

Splashin' Around

Boys' Varsity Swim and Dive

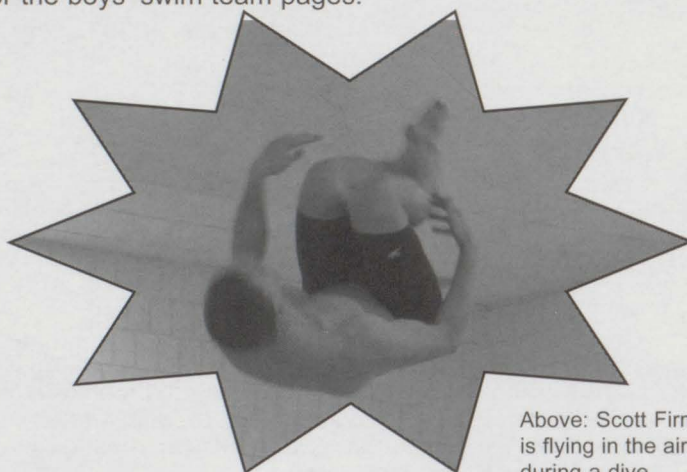

MC

Humans weren't born with flippers. You need to train your body to swim. Being on the swim team takes hard work and dedication. The boys had practice every day during the week except for one or two nights when they attended the meet which they had been training for.

The team started out with a strong start to their season, taking second at the MCHS invitational. The season continued with both wins and losses, but they grew together, forming a strong team. At every meet you would see the team members cheering each other on. During diving, the boys would make up cheers for each diver. The crowd loved hearing their support.

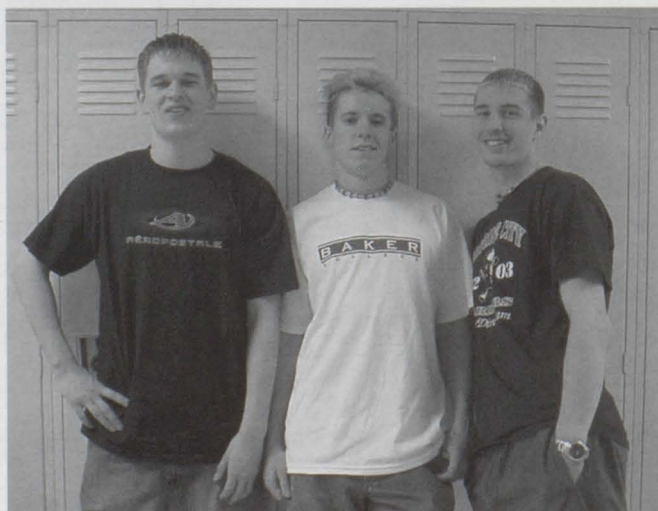

On their road to success, there were a few setbacks. When the school lost power, it caused the pool to lose water. As everyone knows, you can't swim in a pool without water. This cost the team valuable practice time. The other setback was Coach Miller suffering from a broken foot for most of the season. This didn't affect his coaching, but the guys couldn't throw him in the pool as often after a victory.

They ended their season placing 4th at divisionals. Leading the team was Coach Mike Miller, assisted by diving coach Chuck Daniels, and team captains Rick Frickert, Ryan O'Hara, and Dusty Simpson. If there was one lesson learned by the team, it was that you get out of it what you put in. A special thanks to Joel Weston and Byron Goggin for taking pictures for the boys' swim team pages.

SWIMMING DIVING

Right: After finishing a strong race, Matt Duetsch is getting ready to pull himself out of the pool.

Below left: Someone should tell Rick Frickert that you aren't suppose to drink the water, he obviously didn't like the taste.

Pro-Craft offers both good service and quality

Pro-Craft is in the business to help its customers with good service and quality work. We have been in business for ten years. When it comes to designing your dream kitchen, bathroom, or other rooms of your house, Pro-Craft has 40 years of experience in the design field.

We have a computer design center so you can see a preview of what your new room will look like before you begin your remodel or new home project. Pro-Craft offers do-it-yourself assistance or complete cabinet and top installation.

Our sales people take time to help customers make the best decisions based on your needs and price range. We are not a home center, we are a customer center and are more personal to your needs on deciding your future kitchen, bathroom, or other rooms. We can help you with your ideas whether you bring in a layout, measurements, or we come out and measure your home.

We have a wide range of brand name cabinets, counter top material, plumbing and some appliances.

Please call for appointments, drawings, custom countertops and prices.

Come and see us at 807 DeGurse, Marine City. Call us at 810-765-8666 for an appointment.

Walk-ins also welcome.

BEN RICE

Ben,

The time has passed by so quickly. It's been interesting and a joy watching you grow up through the years. We are so proud of the wonderful person you have become.

Be the change you wish to see in the world, for the world is yours right now. Take hold of it and go for your dreams.

With all our love,
Mom, Dad, Cory & Biffy

P.S. Thanks for all the great memories.

Joseph Sausser

CONGRATULATIONS JOE! Thanks for giving us 18 great years! Your success with your studies, music, and soccer fill us with pride.

We know God has great plans for you.

From the day you were born until now, we could not be prouder of the young man you have become. Always believe in yourself and never give up on your dreams.

We will always be here for you.
Love you, Mom & Dad

Jesse Michael Allagreen

When you were very, very small
I used to dance with you cradled in my arms
You were my precious angel
And holding you close
Love overwhelmed me

I wondered what kind of life you would lead
What would be your first word, your first job
What kind of man you would become
And if your life would take you far from me

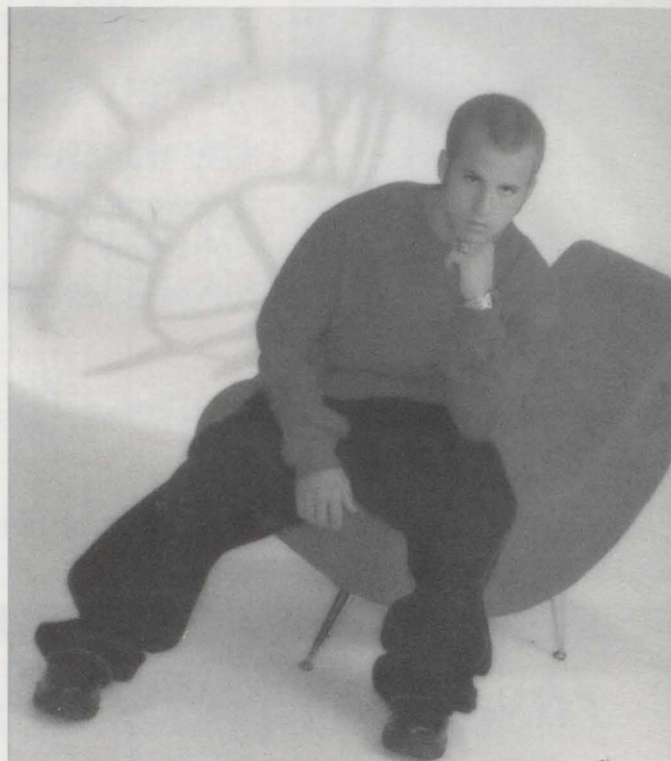

And I'd hold you even closer
Giving you an extra kiss, an extra hug
And whispering "I love you" one more time
Knowing you were too small to remember
But, praying you would never forget

There are days when I long to hold you
In my arms and dance once again

Although I miss my little boy
I am so proud of everything you are
And of the man you will become
My love for you still overwhelms me

As we both grow older
Please never forget
What you were too small...to remember
K. H. Gorin

Mom

I love you son
Beyond words that can even begin
To tell you how much,
I hold you and your happiness within my heart each and every day.

I am so proud of you, and so thankful
To the years that have given me
So much to be thankful for.

If I were given a chance to be anything I wanted to become, there's nothing I would rather be
...than your parent.
And there is no one
I would rather have
...as my son

It's hard to believe that this season is coming to an end and you will be moving on to the next season of your life, where you will be given the opportunity to use the wisdom that God has given you to make new choices. You have been blessed with the wonderful gift of writing. Through your words you enable others to visualize what you see in your imagination. You have become a young man of Character, and you have made us so proud. Continue to seek the Lord in all you do and your success will far exceed your dreams.

T. J.,

It seems like just a little while ago when you entered into our lives.

As we watch you continue to grow,
we see you learn, search and strive.
In pursuing your goals and dreams,
you may face life's ups and downs.

But we know that no matter how impossible it seems,
you'll appreciate what life's found.

We are very proud of you and we know you'll do your best in all you do.

We wish you nothing but great success!

*When you were born you brought a wonderful joy and light to my world.
Your enthusiasm for life shows in the sparkle in your eyes, the brightness in your smile and the lightness in your laughter. As you journey through life hold on to that enthusiasm. It's a wonderful gift.
Follow your dreams with determination, hardwork, honesty and most importantly a kind heart. What I dream for my "Little Girl" is that happiness

Ashley,

Your laugh and sense of humor brings you to everyone around you. God blessed us with you and we are so thankful for the beautiful young lady you have become.

We will always treasure our travels with you and hope you hold them close in your heart as we always will.

Your journey is just beginning as a whole new world awaits you. We know you will take every challenge head on.

Stand up for what you believe in and you will accomplish every goal you desire as you have for the past 18 years.

Thank you Ashley for giving us the best times a family could ask for.

Always stand proud, for you are truly the pride and joy of our lives.

From baglady to brains!
Your smile lights a room the moment you enter,
And your beauty runs to your core.
You look challenge in the face,
And with more courage and determination than Anyone we know-
You calmly conquer adversity and quiet change.
Kindness is your gift to share,
And as we watch you lead with graceful poise;
We are very proud and blessed to have you in our lives.
Keep reaching!

Brock Schmid

Dear Brock,

You once wrote, "I hope that one day my ideas will be important enough, and that I will be in a position to have a positive impact on many people's lives."

To those who take the opportunity to really know you, you make a positive impact every-day. A smile, a kind word or helpful action, that you naturally do, is all it takes. I am so proud of you. Set your goals high, reach for them, and seize each day!

Heroes come to us in a variety of packages.
Thank you, for being you!

With love and pride,
Your Family

Jessica Klapp

Jessica,

We are blessed to have a wonderful daughter as you. You are a kind and generous person with a beautiful spirit. We are so proud of you, and love you very much.

Always believe in yourself and you can achieve anything. We'll always believe in you. You are truly and extra special person.

Richard Frickert

Rick,

First of all we are very proud of you! It seems like yesterday we brought you home and now it's time to let you go. You have reached one of the many milestones in your life and there are still many more to come. We've tried to teach you many things in our sometimes imperfect ways, & yet you were always our inter-strength to help us through the day.

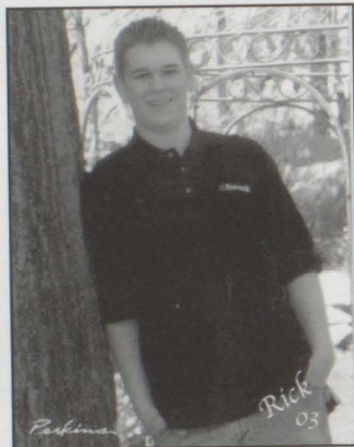

But now we need not worry, because we can see, you have learned our lessons and of those we say well done. We are very proud & grateful, your adult life is about to begin.

Remember all of the things we've tried to teach you as you move on, try and give strength to others, & try not to criticize, be kind and strengthen friendships & family ties. Do not withhold in giving, or be proud to ask for a hand, & let the love we've given to you flow to everyone.

Remember that we love you, & that will always be, our strong & handsome son.

Love,
Dad & Mom

Stephen Furtak

Steve you are a special gift from God. What a privilege it has been to love you and watch you grow. Whatever the future holds, approach it with the same persistence, heart and humor that you always have.

Always remember - you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you. We love you and are very proud of you. You are the world's greatest big brother.

Love always,
Dad, Mom, Amanda and Jacob

"And we know that in all things God works for those who love Him, who have been called according to His purposes." - Romans 8:28

John David Reichle II

John David,

We couldn't have asked for a better son, that we have in you.

You have always been a loving and caring person, with a smile that would light up a room. We want you to know how thankful we are. You did most everything we asked of you. Playing football, going to school dances, even though it interfered with your hunting! Mostly though, being a great kid and staying out of trouble!

I think you had a great example before you and that was your beautiful sister, Julie Ann.

And Jenna will have that same example in you! Thank you!

John David, we know you can be whatever you put your mind and heart to. And you know we'll be there to cheer you on!

We love you more than we could ever say,
Mom, Dad, Julie Ann, and Jenna Lee

Brandi Dueweke

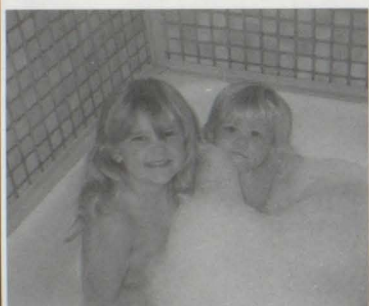

Brandi,

From a beautiful baby to a lovely young lady. You showed your independence from the day you were born. It's helped you to achieve what you have done so far and will carry you far through life. We are very proud of you-you're everything a parent could wish for.

Love,

Mom, Dad

Stephanie and Lady

Hannah Bastow

Nanook,

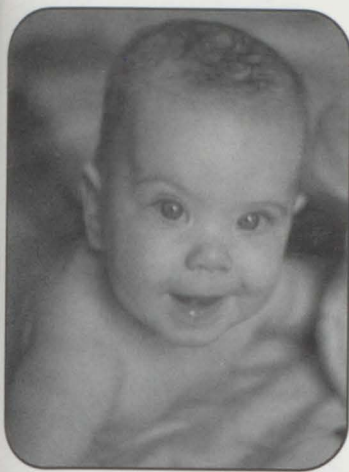

You have been through so much in your young life and there's so much more to come. Do what you love and you will love what you do. You make us proud each and every day.

Remember to trust yourself.

We love you,

Mom and Dad

Katie Rose Trivett

Congratulations on a great beginning. May your path be smooth and your troubles be few. Love you more than anything!

Mom & Dad

Dana Toles

Dear Dana,

This is to Thank You. For always doing your personal best. For being respectful to others. For being conscientious, patient, loyal and committed. For being focused, driven and strong. A soft speaker with a style all your own! All the makings of a Wonderful Daughter with Very Proud Parents! Congratulations on a job well done!

*Dana Doo, We Love You!
Mom & Dad*

"Eres nuestro regalo de Dios. !Que regalo maravilloso!"

Amanda

Markel

Amanda,

To our delight we have watched you grow from a playful child to a mature responsible young woman. This is a time in your life you have long awaited. Never forget your past, but always look to your future. You can achieve anything you put your mind to. Be happy and have fun in life. We'll always be there for you!

*Love always,
Mom, Dad,
Nichole & Cassandra*

Jennifer F. Lester

Jennifer,

You are a bright and shining star and we are so very proud of you. Always do your best, never give up on your dreams, and you can't fail. Our love goes with you where ever you go, whatever you do.

*Love you,
Mom & Dad*

James LaParl

James

It's been a great experience sharing your dreams and watching you grow.

We feel so much pride in all of your accomplishments and in the wonderful person you've become.

May your future be as solid as your character and as bright as your smile.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

James LaParl

James,
You have always been willing to step into other's shoes and do the job cheerfully. Congratulations James! We're so proud of you and WE LOVE YOU.

Grandma and T.T.

James LaParl

Always a football fan

James,

It's been great having you for a grandson and watching you grow into the fine young man you are today. We are very proud of you. Congratulations and good luck in your future endeavors.

Love and God Bless,
Grandpa and Grandma LaParl

Franz-Robert Eugene Schreiner

To our dear son,

Franz , you have become a wonderful young man with such enthusiastic and inspiring talent. You are compassionate, loving and a son that every parent would wish for! Keep writing, playing and singing your music. You fill our hearts with joy and the hearts of others. Your talent and acting capabilities will open many doors. Always remember we will be there supporting you through all of your endeavors. "Break a leg", Franz and let there always be music, ARTIE, and "Little Bear."

Love,
Mom, Dad, Elizabeth and Pigbert

John Warwick

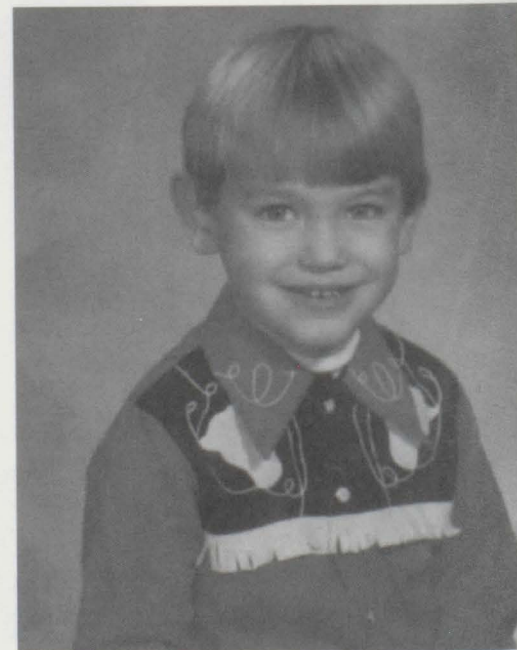

JOHN,

You are our shining star! You light up our lives, yesterday, today, and forever.

Love always,
Gram and Pops

Skyler

Verhelle

Skyler,

Wow! My little boy grew so fast and so tall. It seems like just yesterday we were bringing you home, all 9lbs. 1/2oz. and 23 inches of you. Now your about ready to leave home. Our only blonde boy, and no you were not adopted. Ha! Ha! You have grown into such a good looking, caring, smart, funny and talented young man. Carry these wonderful gifts with you on your journey through life and you will succeed in all you do. We will always be here for you. No matter what! You have made us very proud!!

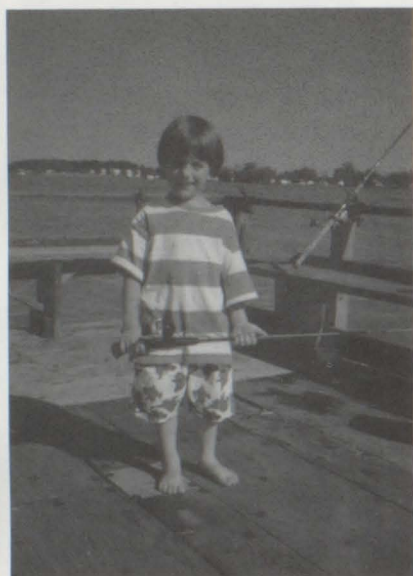

Congratulations,
We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Scott and Spencer

Joshua White

How fast you have grown. You have always been the happiest kid with a great spirit!

*We Love you and are so proud.
Mom, Dad, Justin & Jarrit*

Ryan Zohr

Ryan,

When you were born, you cried and the world rejoiced. Live your life in such a way that when you die, the world cries and you rejoice. May your future be as bright as your past!

We are so proud of you!

Love,

Dad, Mom, Kelly, and Shawn

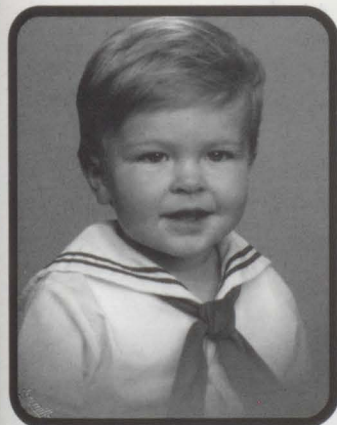

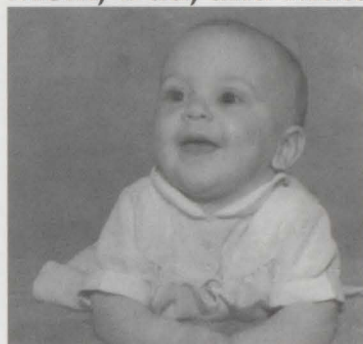

AMANDA WISSMAN

Amanda,
We are very proud of you. Keep up the good work as you go off to college.
Always keep your faith and walk with God.

We will always be here for you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Matt

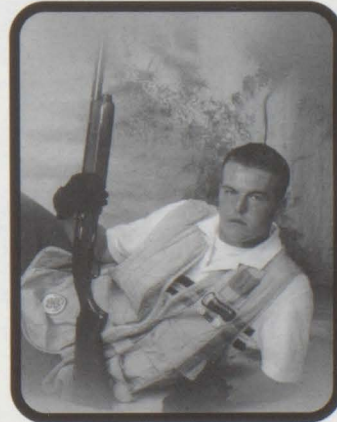

ADAM LEE TREASTER

Adam,
When we count our blessings, we count you twice.
You are our gift to the world.

All our love,
Dad Mom, Amber, Jack & Cinder

*"Tomorrow is the most important thing in life.
Comes into us at midnight very clean.
It's perfect when it arrives and puts itself in our hands.
It hopes that we've learned something from yesterday."*
- John Wayne

Megan Lynn Stephens

Megan Lynn

All too quickly those days of childhood have come and gone from a baby to a child to a beautiful young lady. You were full of life and filled with surprise. We are proud of all your accomplishments. You have so much potential and ability use them wisely. We have tried to give you roots but now it is time to give you wings. Continue to do your best and remember how much you are loved.

Love Dad, Mom, and Heather

Christina Marie White

Christina,

*We are very proud of you. It's been a struggle, but you made it!
You have our love and support for whatever you plan to do in the future.*

*The dawn broke free from the grasp of night,
I walked into school by morning's first light.
No real certainty only a looming fear,
I remember it well, my freshman year.*

*At 7:30 into the class I walked,
Oh so nervous, too scared to talk.
But all my friends were there with me,
For here we are the class of 2003.*

*As graduation day draws near
I already start to shed some tears.
I've been expecting this day to come,
But my high school years have been so much fun.*

*I walk out of school, will it be the last time?
The rest of my life ahead, it's my time to shine.
Time to be strong, in front of family and friends,
Nevertheless, my eyes will glisten before it ends.*

*Though our journey is coming to an end,
Through it all we'll still be friends.
Our high school years will finally pass,
Class of 2003 it's our turn at last.*
